We are a loving, supportive, and vibrant Catholic community committed to being a welcoming parish family by spreading the Love of Jesus Christ throughout our community and into the world.

SOME TAKEAWAY POINTS FROM TODAY'S READINGS.

1. We need to approach Jesus for liberation. Jesus did not use his authority and Divine power to rule and control people, but to set them free. Hence, let us approach Jesus with trusting Faith so that he may free us from the evil spirits that keep us from praying and that prevent us from loving others and sharing our blessings with them. Jesus also frees us from all the "evil spirits" of fear, jealousy, anger, revenge, envy, addictions, compulsions, selfishness, resentment, and hostility. May God free us from all those spirits which make us deaf, dumb, blind, lame, and paralyzed - physically and spiritually.

2. We need to use our God-given authority to build up lives. So many people with authority have made a lasting impression on our lives - for good or for ill. Perhaps it was a grandparent, an uncle, or a parent who loved us and cared for us. Perhaps it was a Sunday school teacher who encouraged us in our Faith and exerted a positive impact on our lives. Perhaps we remember the kindness as well as the firm discipline that a schoolteacher gave us. Teachers are powerful because they change and mold lives. Hence, let us all become good teachers - like Jesus -and use our authority to mold young lives in the right way.

May the Lord continue to guide us and strengthen us that we may live ever more faithfully with each and every passing moment. May we draw ever more to Him and be inspired by His Divine Authority now and always. Amen. In Christ, Father Macdonald Akuti
